Bond for Performance of Covenants

Salesbury and Gruffith to Holand, 1516

Dat[os] quarto die mensis Junii Anno regni Regis Henrici octavi post conquestu[m] Angl[ie] octavo

May all men know, by these presents,

That we, Thomas Salesbury, son of Thomas Salesbury, knight, Robert Salesbury senior, John Salesbury burgess of the town of Conway, and William Gruffith senior, burgess of the same town,

Are held and firmly bounden unto John Holand, son and heir of Morgan Holand deceased,

In the sum of forty pounds of good and lawful money of England, to be paid to the same John Holand, or his certain attorney, heirs and executors, on the feast of Saint Michael the Archangel which will be in the one thousand five hundred and seventeenth year of our Lord next in the future after the date of these presents,

To which payment, indeed, well and faithfully to be made on the said feast, we bind ourselves jointly, and each of us by himself for the whole, and our heirs and executors, and those of each of us, firmly by these presents, marked with our seals,

Dated the fourth day of the month of June in the eighth year of the reign of the eighth King Henry after the conquest of England.

By me, Thomas Salusbery

By me, Jhon Salysberie

By me, William Gruffith

The condition of this obligation is thus,

That if the within-bound Thomas Salesbury, for his part, should perform all and singular the agreements specificied in certain indentures made between him, Thomas, on the one part, and the within-written John Holand on the other part, of which the date is the third day of the month of June in the eighth year of the reign of King Henry the Eighth,

That then the present obligation shall be of no force, otherwise let it stand in force and remain in virtue and effect.
